Thank You!

We dedicate this yearbook and also offer an extra special thank you to Mr. John Moore. The Yearbook staff, especially Renee and Isobel, are grateful for all your assistance. You didn't seem to mind us barging into your class rooms and wasting your time. You were always willing to help. You came to our rescue by often delaying the publisher, because we couldn't get our act together or Charity had misunderstood. We think you must have saved our lives at least a dozen times. This book never would have been finished without you. Your the best!

We the senior class thank Mr. David Whiting for all his help, patience and support this past year. He has dedicated his time, and himself to the Methuen High School senior classes for the past twenty-five years. Everyone has appreciated it, so we dedicate this book to you. Without Mr. Whiting the Prom, Graduation and countless other class activities may have ended in total chaos, or worse may have never even occurred. We will all miss your enthusiasm and charm. Good luck in the years to come.!

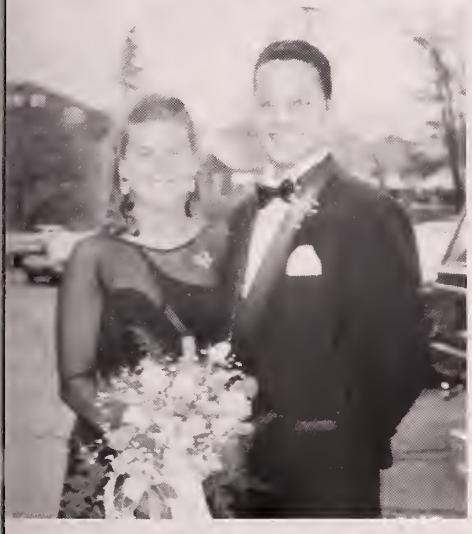
Junior Prom: April 29, 1994



Milli Vanilli

This year the first annual Milli Vanilli lip sinc contest was held at the Methuen High School Auditorium. Individuals and groups were given the opportunity to strut their stuff in front of hundreds of adoring fans. The night was a huge success!

Some of the highlights of the show included, the girls basketball team better known as Sister Act, The teachers performing Van Halen, The Supremes, The Beach Boys, The long lost "We love Methuen" disco song and countless others. First place winners for the evening were Suzan Beauregard, Patricia Cieslik, Jenn Dequinto, Alexandra Farfan, Veronica Landry, Carlos Orsini, Jenn Park, Kim Salem, and Jenny Santana preforming "If" by Janet Jackson. Second place was won by Nino Chiola and Emily Brown preforming and act from "Greece". Third place went to four juniors performing a popular hit by Envouge.

FIELD HOCKEY

If you want to know the meaning of real team spirit then just take a look at these girls. This year's field hockey team had an excellent season. They worked hard and came together to make this their first winning season in a long time. They ended the season with a final record of 8-5-2. This year's senior captains Caryn Picarillo, Alecia Salvo, Kerry Samataro, and Tammy Schubert led the team to the states. Seniors Alison Moran and Keri Tombarelli were chosen to the all-conference and senior Caryn Picarillo and junior Fara Mansour were named all-stars. Together, they made this a year they could all be proud of.

BOYS' SOCCER

This year's boys soccer team was led by captains Eric Riddle and Dan Grelle. They showed their team spirit and played well during the season. Dan Grelle made All Conference, and Eric Riddle, even with his knee injury, was named All Star. He was also awarded the Coaches Award, while Dan Grelle was named MVP, and Tim Yerin was awarded Most Improved.

GIRLS' SOCCER

The Methuen girls soccer team had a great season considering it was only the second year since their comeback. They all pulled together and had many victories because of their ability to play well as a team. The girls finished their season 6-6-1. Mvc player Caty Cote led The ranger to many victories while all the others always gave their best performance.

SWIMMING

This year's swim team was led by captains Isobel Burke and Rachel Campbell. Although it was a young team, each swimmer improved throughout the season. The highlights of the season were the North Sectional Meet and the State Meet. Methuen was represented at the North Sectional Meet by Isobel, Rachel, Shannon Towne, Kerri Smith, and Julie Keaney. Isobel and Kerri went on to the State Meet, where Isobel broke her own school record in the 50 free. The Coaches Award was presented to Rachel, Kerri received the Most Improved, and Isobel was awarded the MVP.

VOLLEYBALL

This year's girls volleyball team had a great season, missing the states by only one game. Senior captains Kate Bialobrzewski and Amy McQuilkin, along with the rest of the team played well ending the season with a record of 10-8-0. They beat rival Dracut for the first time in almost ten years. MVC all-stars were Janice Bashford, for serving, Kate Bialobrzewski, for defense, and Amy McQuilkin, for setting. Janice was also named "most improved," Kate was awarded the coaches award, and Amy was named MVP.

BOYS' VOLLEYBALL

The Boys' Volleyball Team is in its third season and interest in the sport is growing. There was only one senior on the varsity squad this year, and their record could have been better. However, by next year the team could be participating in the state tournament. There are many strong juniors and sophomores ready for action. One of these powerful juniors is settler Mike Jutras. He was voted team captain this year along with being the MVP and an All Star player. The other captain was senior Can Nguyen and Sang Sung Cho was named Most Improved Player by coach Mark Blanchette.

BOYS' SPRING TRACK

This year The Boys' Spring Track team was led by some very strong and supportive seniors. It was John Feugill's first year throwing the shot put for Methuen and he did very well. John was the Class A State Champion, he came in third at the All-State Track Meet, and was voted the MVP in field events. Mike Jaber was the MVP in track events and Louis Martone received the Coaches Award.

Captains Mike Jaber, Chris Halloway, and Alan Anselmi

GIRLS' SPRING TRACK

The girls' spring track team had an excellent season this year, ending their season 2nd in the MVC. All-Conference players were Rita Gallant in the discus, Audra Rovinski in the high jump, Diane Mowatt in the 200yd dash, and Kelley Kinneen in the 300 hurdles. At the Class A State Track Meet there were 1st place finishes in 4 events. Diane took two of these positions into the long jump and 200yd dash, Rita took the discus, and Kelley grabbed the 300 hurdles. Audra came in 2nd in the high jump. Rita, Audra, Diane, and Kelley went on to the All State Meet and Rita and Diane went to New Englands. The Coaches Award was given to Keri Tombarelli, Erica Max was Most Improved, Farrah Douglas received the Whilaway Award, MVP Field was Rita, and MVP Track went to Kelley

FR (L-R) seniors F. Douglas, K. Giglio, K. Tombarelli, R. Gallant, E. Max

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The basketball team had a super season, with a record of 17-6. Methuen beat Central this year for the first time in 14 years. Methuen also made it to the state tournament where they faced Andover for the 4th time, but, this time, the outcome was different. Methuen beat Andover 56-53 in overtime. All-Scholastic and All-Conference player, Bob Ruggiero, joined an elite group this year when he scored his 1,000th point. All-Conference player, Matt Curran, was awarded the Bruce Blood Memorial Award for most assists, Eric Jeanes received the Coaches Award, All-Star John Feugill was awarded the Daniel Forest Award, and Bob Ruggiero was MVP.

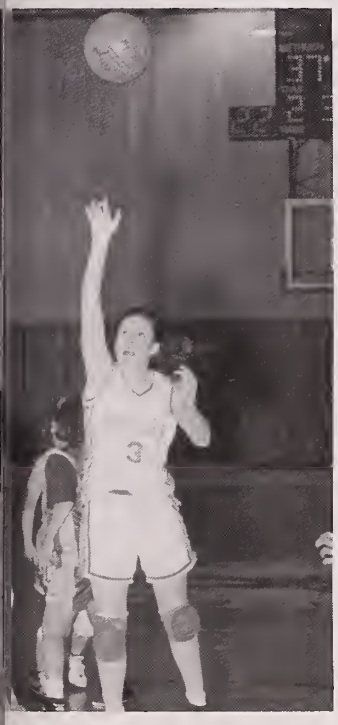
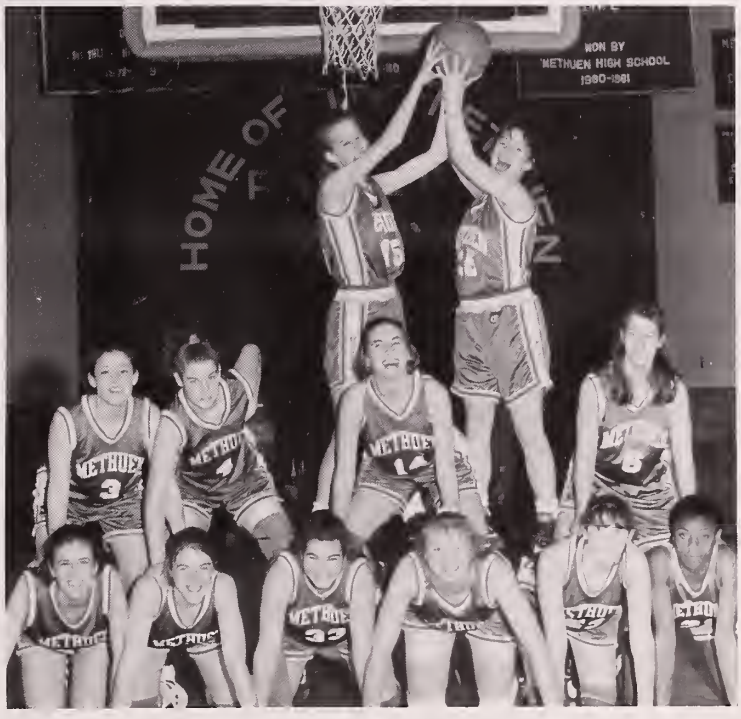
GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The 1994-95 Girls' Basketball team did a great job of making it happen. They stuck together and played well, showing all the signs of classic team work. Their efforts paid off and the team ended the season with a record of 18 and 4. Jaime Cassidy, Michelle Dailey, and Kelly Kinneen were named all conference, while junior, Katie Milton took home the Diane Beaulieu Memorial Trophy. Jaime Cassidy and Kelly Kinneen were also named co-MVP's and Alison Moran was given the Coaches Award. The award for Most Improved went to Erin Stewart





FR: (L-R) Katie Milton, Kelly Kinneen, Alison Moran, Jamie Cassidy, Jen Bradley, Dianne Mowatt
MR: Meghan Stewart, Michelle Dailey, Sara Pierson, Heather St. Louis
BR: Fara Mansour, Erin Stewart

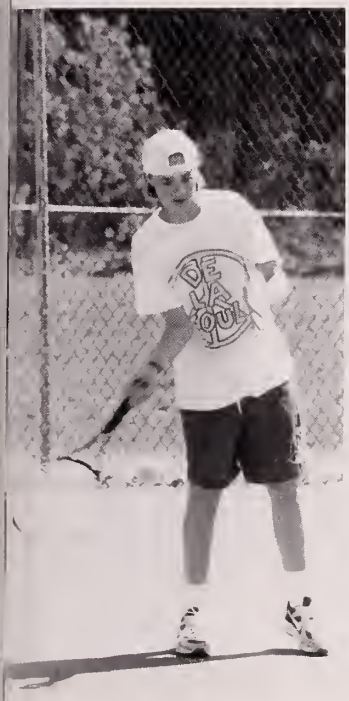
BOYS' TENNIS

The tennis team had an outstanding season, finishing 2nd in the MVC with a record of 16-2 (the best record in school history). All-Conference players were Brian Kobrenski, 2nd singles; David Zukofski, 3rd singles; Neil McCarthy and John Minassian, 1st doubles; and Sam Bragg and Nick Patel, 2nd doubles. Methuen was represented at the State Individual meet by David Carroll, Brian Kobrenski, and David Zukofski. The tennis team also made it to the State Tournament for the 1st time in many years. David Carroll was the MVP, Sam Bragg received the Coaches Award, and Brian was the Most Improved.

BR (L-R) D. Zukofski, S. Bragg, B. Kobrenski, D. Carroll, J. Minassian, N. McCarthy, Coach Smith

GIRLS' TENNIS

The girls' tennis team improved this season, ending with a record of 7-9. Lisa Metropolis played at 1st singles, Rebecca Delduca was 2nd singles, and Nickie White was 3rd singles. First doubles consisted of Jill Packard and Isobel Burke. Masumi Patel received the Most Improved Award for her performance in 1st doubles, while Isobel was out due to a gym injury. Tara Lebel and Sarita Patel played 2nd doubles. Both Lisa and Rebecca played at the State Individual Meet. Nickie received the Coaches Award and Lisa was the MVP.



FR (L-R) K. Longo, S. Patel, T. Lebel, J. Cormier

GIRLS' SKIING

As usual the Girls' Ski Team had an exciting season. Its inexperienced team is doing well and moving up in the conference. There were a few superstars on the slopes skiing for the Rangers this year. These included both Amy McQuilkin and Kerry Nason. Amy missed the state race by about one point and Kerry Nason performed well at this meet. Leading the team were senior captains Renee Biancardi and Amy McQuilkin. Most Improved skier was Jenn Cormier. Renee Biancardi was given the Coaches Award by instructor Kathy Farrell and Amy McQuilkin was voted Most Valuable Player.

FR: (L-R) Kerry Nason, Kami Fouquart, Jenn Webb, Heather Greenwood, Jaime Wallace, Jenn Cormier
BR: Tanya Calamonici, Erin Coco, Meghan LaFlamme, Liz Michaud, Amy McQuiliin, Renee Biancardi, Francesca Beaudoin, Stacy Daher, coach Kathy Farrell

BOYS' SKIING

This year the Boys' Ski Team looked towards its senior and junior members for the points to win races. With promising new skiers and a new coach the team will be a contender in the years to come. Racer Chris Pollack finished strong in most races and was voted MVP. Seniors Troy Bergeron, Matt Johnson, and Brian Keinlie along with juniors Keith Pierce and Mike Jutras all raced well for the Rangers this year. Captains were Keith Pierce and Troy Bergeron. Troy was also given the Most Improved Skier award for 1994.

HOCKEY

This year's hockey team had an excellent season, winning the majority of their games to end with a final record of 15-6-0. Senior captains Ted Dubiel, Jeff Morgano, and Shawn Pomerleau did a good job of pulling the team together so the fans could view the real talent in the rink. Senior goalie, Shawn Pomerleau was named MVP, while Dave O'hearn walked away with the coaches award, and Brett Cagliuso was named the most improved throughout the season. Another outstanding senior Ted Dubiel, along with Shawn Pomerleau, Dave O'hearn, and Brett Cagliuso were named all conference.

GIRLS' INDOOR TRACK

This year the track team went undefeated all season, clenching the MVC small school title for the 2nd year in a row. All-Conference players were Rita Gallant in the shot put, Audra Rovinski in the high jump, and Patti Ann Polluck in the 50yd dash. The 4X4 relay team of Mary Eaton, Martha Eaton, Keri Tombarelli, and Audra was named to the small school All Star team. At the Class A State Meet Rita took 2nd in the shot put and Audra grabbed 3rd in the high jump. Rita and Audra both went to the All State Meet and the Eastern State Meet. Rita was the Northern Area Champion in the shot put. The Coaches Award went to Farrah Douglas, Most Improved was given to Erica Max, Audra received the Whirlaway Award, MVP Field was Rita, and MVP Track was Keri Tombarelli.

FALL CHEERLEADING

Senior captains Stephanie Byrnes and Kerri Valcour lead the squad in numerous spirited cheers throughout the football season. As the ball was being thrown down the field in big games, Trina Tobacco and Bethany Lasonde were being thrown high above the Ranger pyramids. At Awards Night Kerri was honored with the MVP award. Stephanie was given the Coaches Award and Nicole Pellitier took home the Most Improved trophy.

WINTER CHEERLEADING

Once again, the cheerleading squad performed with great pride and determination throughout all their efforts. The cheerleaders had plenty of spirit and support for the basketball team, which they expressed in their unforgettable half-time performance "Be True to Your School", by The Beach Boys. There is also no doubt that the squad's enthusiastic cheers and formations were greatly appreciated as the boys moved to the State finals. Although the team had its ups and downs, captains Stephanie Byrnes and Kerrie Valcour insured that they all performed together as a squad. During the season, Nicole Pelletier was named most improved cheerleader and Kerrie Valcour was named M.V.C.

GYMNASTICS

The girls gymnastics team had a great season this year, only losing two matches. Captain Jaime Lane led the team to their second place finish in the M.V.C. This year the Coaches award was given to Cori Miner, the Most Improved Award was given to Maria Antil, and the Most Valuable Award was given to Jamie Lane. Cori Miner and Jaime Lane were All Stars while Bethany Barbagallo was All Conference.

FR: Upper Classmen (L-R) Coru Miner, Maria Anctil, Captain Jaime Lane, Beth Brucato

his year the wrestling team may have had one of s best seasons ever. Its experienced members ave nothing but wins to show for their efforts. t the Division 1 North Sectionals Methuen had ree first place finishers. They were Rafi Brito 30 lbs.), Rafael Cruz (160 lbs.), and Sean Lartonda (171 lbs.) This was the first time ever that lethuen has had three sectional champs in one ear. The winning continued at the Division 1 tate Meet. Rafi took second, Rafael came in ird, and Sean placed fifth. At the Awards banuet Rafi Brito was crowned MVP, Sean Lartonda was named Most Improved wrestler, afael Cruz was given the Coaches award and ino Chiola was awarded the Unsung Hero ward.

BOYS' CROSS COUNTRY

Although this year's boys cross country team had a disappointing season, ending with a final record of 1-8-1, they pulled together and gave it their best effort. Senior captains, Mike Jaber and Chris Holloway kept the teams spirits up and they had a lot of fun. At the end of the season Chris Holloway was named MVP, Mike Jaber was awarded Most Improved, and Joe Normandin was given the coaches award.

Homecoming

Homecoming night brought both laughter and tears to four beautiful young ladies. Their smiles were as bright as the stars above them. However, the smile of one those young ladies would shine more brightly than any other on that chilly November night. At half time Suzan Beauregard was crowned Homecoming Queen of Methuen High School on November 12, 1993. Her court included Kerrie Samataro, Patricia Cieslik and Tammy Schubert.

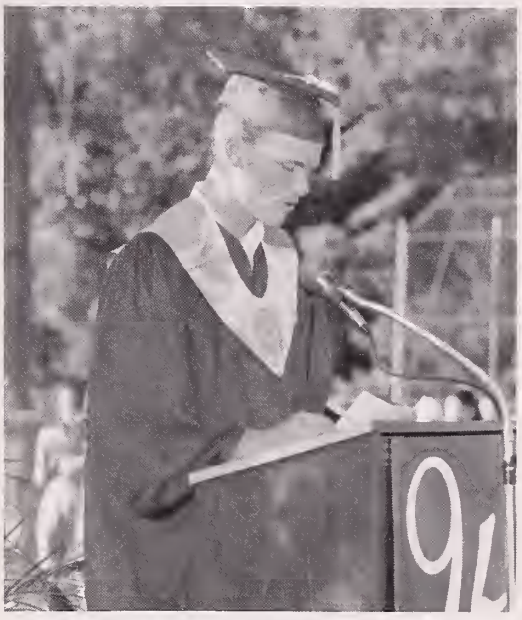
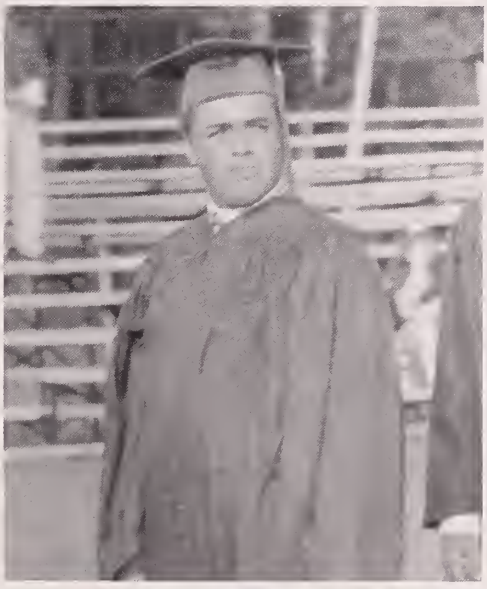
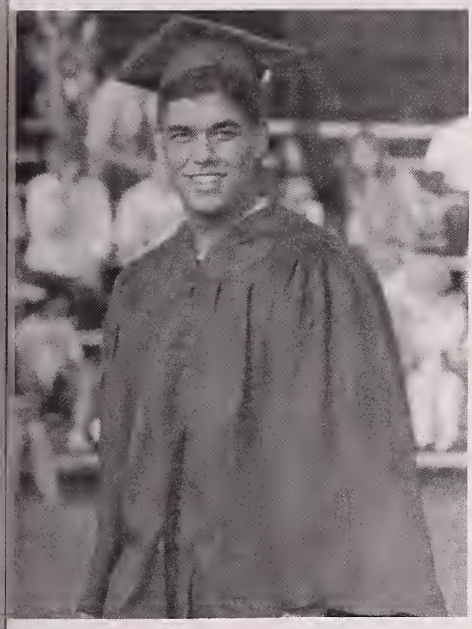
GRADUATION!

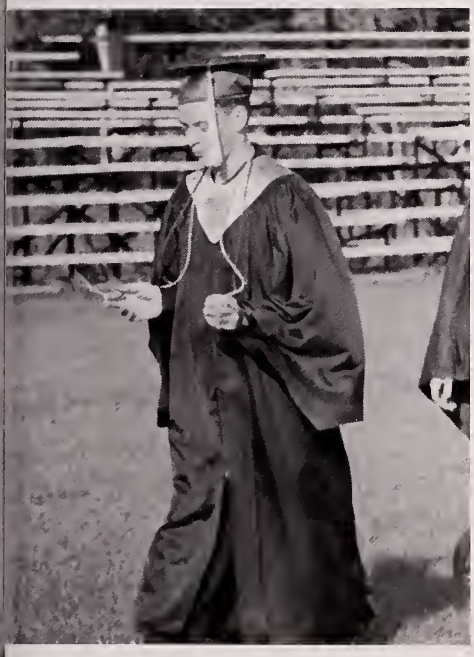


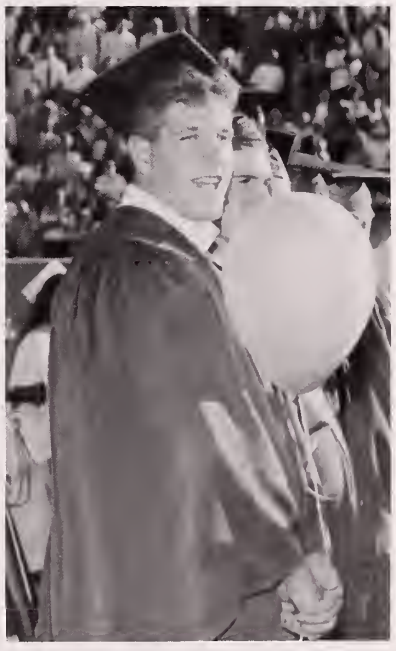


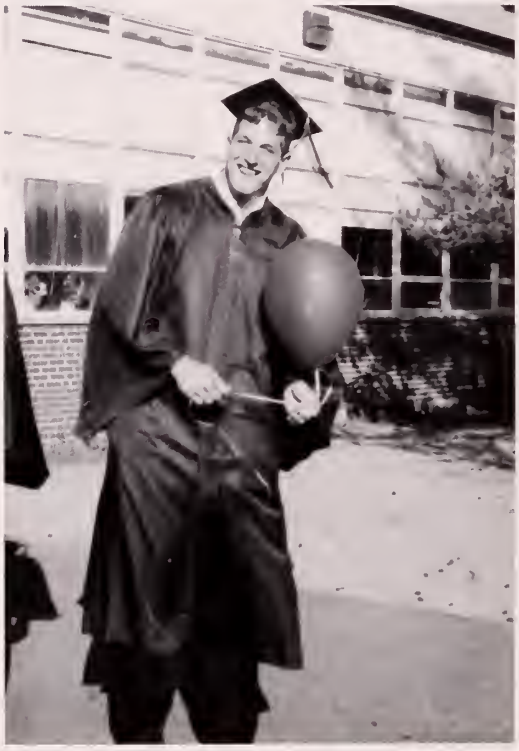
June 3, 1994

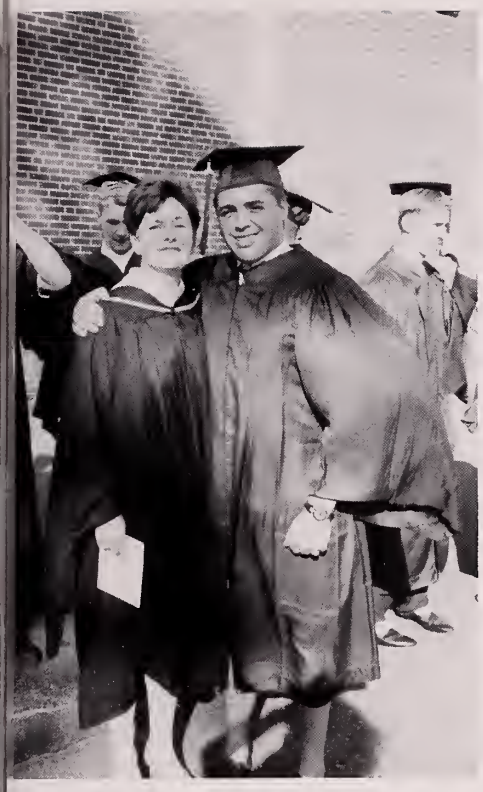
"Lean On Me"

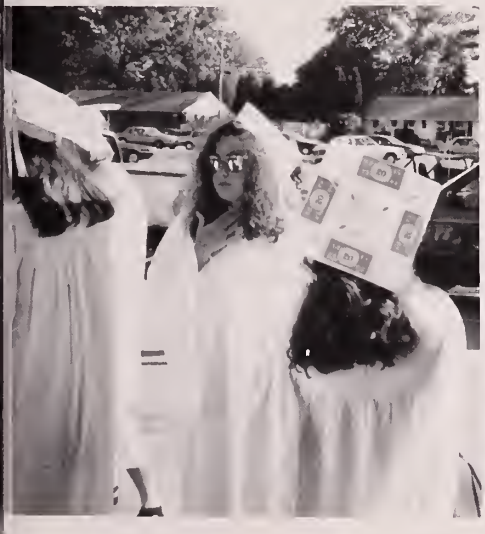












"We, the AP English class leave Ms. Smith the plethora of Cliff Notes that we used this year."

"We the AP U.S. History class leave Mr. Hughes an AP test on the history of Methuen and his own water wheel."

"Nathalie Boutot leaves Kristy Tridenti her own boyfriend."

"Eva leaves Connie Moschetto the seven years of friendship and good luck in the future."

"I, Janish Bashford, leave Dave Slipp a tape recorder so everyone can listen to his problems."

"We leave Mr. Herhily Jeff McEvoy for another year."

"We the girls of fifth period gym class leave Jack Bradish a smaller ego . . ."

"We the senior girls leave Donnie and Danny sleeves."

"We the senior girls leave the senior boys a years supply of muscle enhancers that do nothing for them."

"I, Katie Giglio leave Kim Salem the well deserved absence and Dan Fluet my watch to remind you that I'll be there any time for you."

"I, Jeff leave J. Khalil a pack of gum, his own locker, some sense to keep his mouth shut when he should and better pick-up lines."

"Nicki Carrier leaves Sal Diprima all of our memories in senior year and a long future ahead."

"I, Veronique Landry leave Suzan Beauregard a tissue for every time she cries."

"Danielle Charity leaves Trisha Boucher and Kevin Ricci 75 years of marriage and 14 kids."

I, Janice Bashford leave Dave Weagle a comeback for all my insults.

Last Will and Testament

— I, Katie Giglio, leave Caryn Picarillo a great friendship that has lasted the test of time/ to Tammy Schubert a mysterious black haired blue jeep driving drug dealer that will someday pop up in her life again/ to Kim Salem the well deserved abstinence award, my sanity, my surprising library talks, and many thanks for being there for me/ to Tim Smith many walks, interesting talks, and a smile to keep you going next year/ to Dan Fluet my watch to remind you that at anytime I will be there for you.

— I, Rebecca Consentino, leave Stacie Tokowicz all the high note, Joey Normandin a Nutty (Buddy) Royal, Dave Slipp the "A" in psychology that never was, and Jen Buck a car that works.

— I, Nathalie Boutot, leave Chris Incalingo "Good Luck!", Christy Tridenti her own boyfriend, an awesome friendship, and a guilty conscience.

— I, Paul Rapazzo, leave my golf greatness to Ki Kwon because he needs help.

— We, Mariselle Cintron and Alejandra Rodriguez, leave Miguel Perez and Eddie Orsini a Puerto Rican flag.

— I, Jeff L., leave Jay Kahill his own locker, a pack of gum, better pick up lines, and the sense to keep his mouth shut when he should.

— I, Amanda Crowell, leave to Shannon, Valerie, and Melissa 6 years of friendship, never to be forgotten and never to end.

— I, Ann Marie Guy, leave my 4th period study table Nikki, Holly, Sandy, Tricia, Natilie, Ewa, Jamie, and Meg all our great talks and laughs.

— I, Keri Tomborelli, leave Katie Giglio a pack of gum for all those people she doesn't like in college.

— I, Rebecca Petrillo, leave Heidi Fearing my table cloth and a ride in the subways of Boston all expenses paid, Darlene Ferrara my ulcer, Tommy Spitalere a basket and a bell for his bicycle, Sal Delmonte my shoe laces, Jodi Bertrand, Jaime Shradermeyer, and Christina Dicroce "Grandpa", and Stephanie Norris, Mark Rapazzo's chipped tooth.

— We, the Senior Class, leave Matt Carey a date with Erin Stewart.

— I, Brian Ploetz, leave Lisa Metropolis a package of sizzle-lean.

— I, Heather Roy, leave Dave Carroll the timeless truths of Jack Handey.

— I, Rae Jean Dube, leave Charlie Towne my striped shirts and back door buddy.

— I, Keith Foster, leave Matt Crabtree a yard full of jeeps.

— I, Sarah Huskey, leave Christine Russo the loudest alarm clock so that she may be able to make it to school at least once on time.

— I, Amy Wall, leave Ted Dubiel the hockey puck he shot at my head.

— I, Dave Carroll, leave Jaime Lane deep thoughts and Run DMC albums.

— I, Dave Carroll, leave Christina Savoy a wedding ring and a lifetime of happiness.

— We, the Senior Class, leave Jeff McEvoy all the memories he's forgotten.

— I, Kerrie Valcour, leave Miguel Perez two years that he will never catch up with.

— I, Kerrie Valcour, leave Kate, Tammy, Katie, and Renee the 4th of July night that never ended.

— We, Kerrie, Tammy, Dawn, Stephany, and Kate, leave Sal Lomagno everything he thought he knew.

— I, Ivelizbeth Rodriguez, leave my friends Evelyn, Diana, Mabel, and Shelia a wish of good luck in their life and future, and the hope that they'll never forget me.

— I, Ron Newcomb, leave Sean Laratonda my huge biceps and to Chad Lucier my coolness.

— I, Carla Thompson, leave Nikki Roy a huge sand barrel.

— I, Mike Powers, leave Jill Oulette my broken heart.

— I, Mike Powers, leave Ewa Januezewski my ego.

— I, Wendy Allen, leave Dani Robare a night of romance and some mouthwash.

— I, Wendy Allen, leave Jeff Larcome a night of the BBC and a car stereo.

— I, Alan Anselmi, leave Mrs. Wilcock's 3rd period Spanish class my ability to fluently speak Espanol.

— I, Christina Savoy, leave Dave Carroll my hand in marriage.

— I, Christina Savoy, leave Cindy Leclerc a bottle opener so she doesn't lose her teeth at parties.

— I, Julie Aziz, leave Annie Brown a turkey, a glacier, a fit of uncontrollable laughter, and a lifetime of the best friendship I've ever had.

— I, Julie Aziz, leave Suzan and Stephanie some real fake ID's.

— I, Renee Biancardi, leave Amy McQuilkin and Rachel Campbell the infamous "T" we almost got away with, the Three Muskateers, "shotgun", and the promise to stay friends forever.

— I, Renee Biancardi, leave Eric Jeans SAINTHOOD.

— I, Lynne Sarao, leave Alison Forsythe Cape Cod, Hampton Beach, many double dates and long talks, and a close friendship that is guaranteed to last a lifetime.

— I, Lynne Sarao, leave all of my friends plenty of pens and paper so they can all keep in touch and an invitation to visit me at Stonehill anytime.

— I, Jen Demers, leave Danny Bouraphael wallet stuffers, every beautiful flower, memories, and the best thing that he has lost forever.

— I, Suzan Beauregard, leave Jackie Feugill just one more tennis match, Kim Salem Mr. Knittle and another glass, Caryn Picarillo her ID, Melissa Chase Jungle Fever, Rita Gallant and Keesha Chase Little Caesar's, Jamie Dicabellis a leash for her man, Isobel Burke a fry to go with that shake, and Tammy Schubert Melida and a sorry for all the bad times.

— I, Jen Buck, leave Sue Gaffney a lifetime supply of stories.

— I, Jaime Mustapha, leave my best friend, Tiffany Daigle, the turbo button in her car.

— I, Tiffany Daigle, leave my best friend, Jaime Mustapha, the week to come at the cottage on J St. and the long summer nights at the beach.

— I, Christina DiCroce, leave Lynne Sarao a raindrop so we'll always have laughs and our many years of friendship.

— I, Jenny Santana, leave Alexandra, Sue, Veronica, Jen D., Tricia, Kim, Victor, and Carlos a long lasting friendship.

— I, Kerry Samataro, leave Jackie Feugill our friendship to remember.

— I, Steve Kenher, leave to Lisa Metropolis, Amy McQuilkin, and Sara Cusack a box of Kleenex for all the sniffs over the past 4 years and to Robert Rodriguez the best most exciting 2 years in a wonderful Graphic Arts class.

— I, Julie Kearney, leave all of my daily candy supply to Jen DeBurrow.

— I, Heather Melito, leave Tara Nolet her own personal orthapedic surgeon, Erica Max a no homework pass, AP Spanish Class the work we pretended to do while Mrs. Hallbauer was in the Hall, Isobel Burke the friendship we once had, Alison Forsythe our conversations in gym class, Sital Bhadola a new set of directions and a map, and Keith Dezan all of our fun and much more to come.

— I, Kim Salem, leave Suzan Beauregard a dream that never ends.

— I, Kim Salem, leave Carlos, Suzan, Jenny, Alexandra, Tricia, Jen D., Jen P., and Veronica one word — "IF".

— I, Tracie Moury, leave Kristen Field a car her parents can't take the battery out of.

— I, Rebecca Brown, leave Emily Brown the "Brownmobile".

— I, Susan Gaffney, leave Becky Brown an answer in the wind, a friendship to last forever and to always be "stayin' alive" at the Mighty Mushroom.

— I, Tammy Schubert, leave Suzan Beauregard the friendship that should have started 4 years ago.

— I, T.S., leave K.S., S.B., C.P., and M.C. R235, R237, parties in R59, and R77, 77 year old white Russians wearing sombreros in Oregon, lost in U167 and a peach toast with Melita under the Carribean moonlight.

— I, Krissie Laschi, leave Renee Laperriere a personality of her own and a friendship that will last a lifetime.

— I, Amy McQuilkin, leave Troy Bergeron, Mike Gowell, Ben Gibson, Keith Pierce, Andre Gabreyjelski, Jeff McEvoy, and Lori McCarthy one night at the Tage and a rude awakening by Marc Campiola.

— I, Amy McQuilkin, leave Brian Ploetz and Nikki White one more "Escape from Herlihy's class."

— I, Nikki Carrier, leave Sal DiPrima all of our memories throughout senior year and our long future ahead.

Class of 1994

— I, Stacy Newton, leave Estelle Tobin my diploma, because without her, I wouldn't be here right now.

— I, Veronica Landry, leave the following: Kim Salem a tap at her window, MacGyver, summer of 92, and a friendship forever. Tricia Cieslik cookie dough ice cream, no neck, lots of good fish and a friendship forever. Jen Park a diploma and a dozen eggs. Suzan Beauregard a tissue for every time she cries. Jenny S., Alex F., Suzan B., and Jen D. salad and Denny's.

— I, Nicole Roy, leave Carla Thompson snowbanks, getting your car stuck at my house during a snowstorm, and I told you so.

— I, Danielle Charity, leave Tricia Boucher and Kevin Ricci 75 years of marriage and 14 kids.

— I, Janice Bashford, leave Dave Weagle a come back for all my insults.

— I, Janice Bashford, leave Dave Slipp a tape recorder so someone can listen to his problems.

— We, Amy McQuilkin and Rachel Campbell, leave Janice Bashford a muzzle and some peanut butter so that she can shut her yap. (Kidding, Janice)

— I, Estelle Tobin, leave Stacy Newton my friendship that will last a lifetime.

— I, Estelle Tobin, leave Pam Bohne a less annoying laugh.

— We, Period 7 English, leave Mr. Herlihy Jeff McEvoy for another year.

— I, Jenny Santana, leave Jen D. a pair of matching socks, Kim the saying "Technical Guys", Tricia a camel to tour Egypt with, Suzan, a sign of Remax Reality and suggestions to drive on the right side of the road, Alexandra a map of the New York train to get around, and Veronica a new laugh.

— I, Connie Moschetto, leave Chris Wyman all the fun we've had senior year in periods 1, 2, 3, & 5. I also leave him my naked sweat pants.

— We, the Senior Class, leave Stacy Avila & Heidi Daly some chapstick for their lips, since they go around kissing everyone's boyfriends.

— I, Beverly Lees, leave K.N. a forever party.

— I, Melissa McNary, leave to Shanno Witkum a buick regal with a brand new engine.

— I, Renee Laperriere, leave John a life without Krissie.

— I, Rafi Brito, leave my friend Neil his buddy coach Fitz.

— I, Tricia Cieslik, leave Kim Salem twins, step brothers, and best friends.

— I, Anthony Cimino, leave to my friends a razor blade.

— I, Dannie Robare, leave to Wendy Allen a bike she won't fall off of.

— I, Rachel Campbell, leave Nickie White another fire chase with Gaudalupe and the hope that Juana and Miguela stay the African money maker and the African pig trainer forever, also a permanent invitation to my dorm and my calling card number so that you won't have an excuse not to call. Souey!

— I, Jessica Arsenault, leave my half of the brain cell to Becky Wescott.

— I, Caryn, leave Katie and Tammy all the good times in New Jersey.

— I, Caryn, leave the man of my dreams, TI-85, with a big screen so he can read my messages.

— I, Sara Cusack, leave Amy McQuilkin a pair of gold hoop earrings and more wild January nights.

— I, Sara Cusack, leave Winnie Allen a box and a song to sing about it.

— I, Liz Drew, leave Sean Laratonda a backless strapless bra.

— I, Melissa Drew, leave Liz Drew and Christine Bazdanes an ice cream at Friendlies.

— We, Kerri Demers and Holly D'Angelo leave Jen DeCunto a pair of socks that match her outfits.

— I, Nicole White, leave Mrs. Bergeron, Mr. Sistini, and everyone else in the senior class play my pastel pleasures.

— I, Nicole White, leave to the class of 95 a big parking space where the Buick station wagon once parked.

— I, Jamie Snow, leave Janice and Heather, many more days filled with blue golf balls and crowded hot dog stands.

— I, Danni Robare, leave Timmy Mailoux an instructional video of the McRobare method.

— We, Heidi Fearing, Noelle Favazza, and Darlene Ferrara, leave Becky a walker, hearing aid, a marching band, and the clown with big red shoes.

— We, Dawn Bistany and Tammy Schubert, leave Miguel and Dave a road map and 25 cents for a bum.

— We, Dawn Bistany, Stephanie Burnes, and Kerrie Valcour, leave Jody Towne a new set of brakes, a pen to fill out the accident report, and the Methuen "M" for more fast getaways.

— I, John Gerrand, leave Renee, Bill, Charlene, someone else to runaway with, and Krissie a license to drive.

— I, Gabriel Depew, leave Colleen and Tracy the white Iroc that nearly took our lives.

— I, Liz Drew, leave Melissa great memories.

— We, Danny Fluet and Ted Dubiel, leave Katie Giglio the latest Anita Baker Album.

— We, Danny Fluet and Al Anselmi, leave Mr. Fiorentini the Model UN, which, of course, is history by now.

— I, Rita Gallant, leave Audra Rovinski the back seat of Mr. Bloods' car for all of next year's track meets to yourself.

— I, Jackie Feugill, leave Jill Ouellette a set of luggage toss on her ego trip.

— 3rd lunch leaves Nino Chiola a whip and handcuffs for all of his wild and crazy nights.

— I, Alison Forsythe, leave Lynne a lifetime supply of pixie sticks and memories of all the fun times we've had together.

— I, Isobel Burke, leave Jen Cormier a couple of rides around the rotary and many more good times together.

— I, Isobel Burke, leave Annie Brown the memories of all our years of friendship.

— I, Katie Giglio, leave Tammy Schubert, Kate Bialobreski, Renee Biancardi, and Kerry Valcour many more Fourth of July adventures with Steve Sanders, the Drug Dealer, Scram Slam, and Muscle man at Denny's.

— We, Isobel Burke and Renee Biancardi, leave the Yearbook, if it ever get finished.

— I, Renee Biancardi, leave Katie Giglio, Caryn Picarillo, Tammy Schubert, and Dawn Bistany Fanuel Hall and the Soccer team we almost missed. P.S. What would we all do without Tammy's cellular phone.

— I, Renee Biancardi, leave John Feugill a smile and someone to talk to in the halls.

— We, Rachel Campbell and Isobel Burke, leave Kerri Smith a cushioned wall at the end of the pool so that she won't break her neck doing the backstroke.

— I, Rachel Campbell, leave Danny Robare a chord of wood, a beaver skin rug, and one last nap in English class.

— I, Alecia Salvo, leave Wendy Allen a true story to tell.

— I, Lynne Sarao, leave Kim Salem four years of friendship whose meaning will provide a lifetime of memories.

— I, David Caroll, leave Renee Biancardi 1/10,000th of a point, an essayist speech and student of the week honors.

— We, the seniors on the field hockey team leave Katie Milton the respect she deserves.

— I, Eric Riddle leave Donny Mustapha a lifetime supply of kids t'shirts.

— I, Janice Bashford, leave Jill Packard a drivers license and a car.

— We, the girls of 5th period gym, leave Jack Bradish a smaller ego and 2 tiny tennis balls.

— I, Charlene Furnari, leave Renee and Krissie a lifelong friendship.

— I, Laurie Wedge, leave Stacy and Estelle a dime to call me and we'll always keep in touch.

— I, Kim Salem, leave Veronica and Tricia 4 years of unforgettable memories that we'll always share no matter how far apart we are.

— We, the Senior girls, leave Donny and Danny sleeves.

— We, the Senior girls, leave the Senior boys a years supply of muscle enhancers that do nothing for them.

Prophecy

It's the year 2005 and we, Tammy Schubert and Kim Salem, decided to take time off from our stressful lives as relationship counselors. We felt we need to take a trip to Atlantic City, since we were feeling a bit lucky. While on our way, our car broke down. We decided to knock on the first door we came to, the woman who answered it looked like Carol Brady. Soon after we realized it wasn't Carol Brady, but it was Jaime Wyman. Sitting at the kitchen table we found several other happily married couples, Sean and Christine Laratonda, Ted and Amy Dubiel, and Keith and Heather Dezan. They were discussing how famous defense attorney Stephanie Byrnes was to defend "Towne Trucking" owner Charlie Towne for yet another misunderstanding. In the living room, Jaime and Chris's six children were playing quietly with their teachers Liz Drew and Daniele Dirsa, and their sitters Ndebe Selli and Regina Weldon.

Now, our car was fixed and we were back on our way. At the "Carlos Alfonso Orsini Casino" we saw many more familiar faces, including Missy Chase who just hit it big on the slot machines. Many of our classmates had become entertainers. Jaime "Bubbles" Schradermeier and Kerrie "Kiki" Valcour were known for their dancing among other things. Nino Chiola is a famous lounge singer with back up from trio Becky Brown, Tracie Moury, and Sue Gaffney. The last of the entertainers were Holly DeAngelo and Jenny Santana, both trying to be the next Janet Jackson.

Luckily, we won big so instead of heading home we decided to head to California. Along the way, we felt we needed new looks. We hired personal advisor David Carroll to help us. First, we headed to "The Samataro Salon" and guess who we saw working there, Dawn Bistany, Nikki White, and Alecia Salvo whose specialties were exotic hair colors. With our new hair styles we were off to the mall, owned by tycoon Matt Crabtree. The first store we went to was "The Gap" owned by Julie Aziz and managed by Mike Gowell and Marc Campiola. This mall had many unique stores. There was a store called "Sleveless" co-owned by Donny Mustapha and Danny Bouraphael and an agricultural store co-owned by Kate Bialobrzewski, Jeff McEvoy, and Andre Gabryjelski. This store was a hangout for many other Methuen High graduates like, Mike Cronin, Tony Firth, and Danny Robare. F.B.I. agents Amy McQuilkin, Caryn Picarillo and Renee Biancardi also spent many hours in this so called agricultural store. Security guard Sandy Michaud spent endless hours trying to control out of hand power shoppers Veronica Landry, Tania Leal, Jamie Valente, Maria Brancato, and Lynne Sarao.

On our way out of the mall we had to pass through "T.V. World" owned by

. . . The Year 2005

Angel Lopez. We noticed that on one T.V. President Janice Bashford and first-man Eric Jeans were talking about the first successful brain transplant performed by Dr. Marisele Cintron. On another T.V. was a sports show highlighting WWF wrestlers Rafael Cruz and Rafael Brito, PGA golfers Paul Rapazzo and Dave Weagle, marathon runners Mike Jaber and Chris Holloway, and finally women body builders Keri Tombarelli and Rita Gallant.

While on a long stretch of highway, we decided to get crazy and race Jen Demers. Unfortunately we were pulled over by state officers Alison Forsythe and Gary Broderick and incarcerated. While in jail we saw some other familiar faces. Jeff Larcome was in for embezzlement. Katie Giglio was there doing time for littering. Brian Milton, Brian Kobrenski, Mike Palmer, and all the Nguyen girls were in jail for illegal gambling.

Attorney Charlene Furnari got us out of jail and now we were off to California. In the streets of L.A. we saw many struggling musicians such as John Gerrand, Jill Packard, Chris Cardone, Brian Ploetz, and Dave Slipp. They called themselves "The Ranger Pride." At this time were were feeling hungry so we decided to go to "Little Caesars" owned by Jad Ramey and Matt Carey who was just voted "Sexiest Man Alive." Out in front of the restaurant there was a huge statue of Pope Alan Anselmi.

Finally, we were off to the beach. We found the tan man Eric Riddle and Coppertone girl Christina Savoy in the water. Lifeguard Isobel Burke just saved Gregg Guy from a freak surfing accident. We also saw cross-dresser Louis Martone and beef cake Kevin Wright hanging around the beach. On the nearby basketball courts a game was taking place. Bob Ruggiero, Matt Curran, John Feugill, Dan Fluet, and Ken Costa were having a tough time taking on Alison Moran, Laura Arnold, Bev Lees, Katie Nye, and Erica Max. Tara Nolet couldn't play due to another injury, and Eric Jeans couldn't play because Janice Wouldn't let him.

Unfortunately, all good things come to an end and it is time to go home. We sold our car and headed to the airport. On the way to our gate we bumped into Sue Beauregard who was still having trouble saying goodbye. Next, we were tackled by Mike Zoltco, Joe Sanguedolce, and Chuck Silva who were late for the Superbowl. While on the plane we happened to look out the window to see a stadium being prepared for the graduating class of 2005. We hope these students realize as we do now graduation is "not the end, nor is it the beginning, but the end of the beginning," as once said by our valedictorian Jaime Lane Wyman.
